Foreword

The Indian regulatory landscape has witnessed a significant shift in recent years, with an increased focus on ensuring the quality of audits conducted by professional firms. The National Financial Reporting Authority (NFRA) has played a pivotal role in this regard, issuing orders and reports that provide valuable insights into the expectations and standards expected of audit firms.

This publication serves as a comprehensive resource for professionals and students alike, offering a collection of case study-based NFRA orders and reports. By analyzing these cases, professionals can gain valuable insights into potential red flags and proactively address issues that led to corporate failures.

This publication presents a compilation of NFRA orders and reports, offering a rich repository of insights into the expectations regulators have set for auditing firms and auditors. This collection of case studies has been meticulously curated to provide invaluable learning opportunities for our members, students and audit professionals.

I encourage readers to delve into the content of this publication and engage in discussions to deepen their understanding of the evolving regulatory landscape and best practices in auditing. By learning from the experiences of others, we can collectively enhance the quality and credibility of the auditing and accountancy profession in India.

I take this opportunity to thank the contributors comprising CA. Manojkumar Sahu, CA. Ambesh Dave, CA. Chintan Shah, CA. Shraddha Khivsara and CA. Kalpit Bhagat for taking out valuable time to research relevant cases and put them together in a comprehensive manner for the betterment of the profession and members everywhere.

I trust that this publication will prove to be a valuable tool for professionals and students alike, enabling them to discuss, deliberate and more importantly assess key learnings from these reports and contributing in a concrete manner to the ongoing development and improvement of the auditing profession in India.

Preface

It gives me immense pleasure to present this compilation of orders and reports issued by National Financial Reporting Authority (NFRA). The NFRA is a regulatory body in India established under the Companies Act, 2013 with primary role to monitor and enforce the compliance of auditing and accounting standards and oversee the quality of services of the associated profession, to ensure the quality and reliability of financial reporting.

NFRA has issued in recent past various orders and reports, particularly in the form of Audit Quality Review Reports (AQRR) and Financial Reporting Quality Review Reports (FRQR). The objective of this publication is to consolidate and highlight the important learnings from some of NFRA orders, AQRRs, and FRQRs. By understanding and learning from these documented observations, we aim to understand expectations of NFRA and enhance the quality of financial reporting and auditing practices.

I would like to extend my heartfelt thanks to the Chairman of WIRC CA. Ankit Rathi for entrusting our committee with this significant task. I also express my sincere gratitude to all contributors CA. Manojkumar Sahu, CA. Ambesh Dave, CA. Chintan Shah, CA. Shraddha Khivsara, CA. Kalpit Bhagat for their dedicated efforts, which have been instrumental in bringing this publication to fruition. Your commitment to this cause has ensured that this compilation will serve as a valuable resource for our members.

As Warren Buffett wisely said, "It's good to learn from your mistakes. It's better to learn from other people's mistakes." This compilation embodies that philosophy by providing insights from publicly available NFRA orders/reports, helping us all to avoid similar pitfalls in our professional practices.

I wish all the readers the very best in their journey towards excellence in financial reporting and auditing. May this publication serve as a guide and an inspiration to uphold the highest standards of our profession.

Warm regards,

CA. Chintan N. Patel

	SA 200	Overall Objectives of the Independent Auditor & Conduct of Audit in accordance with standard on Auditing Para 14 to 16	Whether appointment of Audit firm as "Statutory Auditor for the Branches" was done in compliance with SA	The appointment of the Audit Firm as "Statutory Auditor for the branches" was not done by the competent authority i.e. (shareholders). On examination of the Audit File, it was observed that the EP did not verify compliance with section 139 of the Act regarding the appointment and accepted the invalid appointment letter that was issued by an "Authorised Signatory" without the approval of the Board and shareholders. Accordingly, both the appointment as "Statutory Auditor for the branches" and the "Independent Branch Auditors' Report" issued by the EP were invalid. The Code of Ethics, 2009, applicable to the EP require auditor to ensure professional competence, due care, integrity and professional behaviour in discharging his duties, which were lacking, as evidenced by his acceptance of an audit engagement that was legally invalid. But still EP formed unmodified opinion on Financial statements. Also audit opinion issued by the EP ambiguously states that the "Trail Balance and other details of the branch . . exhibit a true and fair view". This is despite the fact that, by his own admission, he did not receive around 50% of the material requisitioned for audit. As per the SAs, the EP is required to evaluate the effect of the misstatements and decide to appropriately modify his opinion. In spite of Auditors having independence threat, they accepted the audit engagement as statutory auditor by disregarding and grossly violating the principle of independence mentioned in standards of auditing and code of ethics. In view of this, the charge stands proved that the Auditors have violated SQC 1, SA 200 and SA 220.

The Audit File is required to be assembled within 60 days of the signing of the audit report. However the auditor did not comply with the same. The clear evidence of the Auditors tampering with the Audit File without valid reasons, coupled with their delaying tactics in acknowledging communications (email, letter) from NFRA, displays unprofessional behaviour.

These loans were never repaid by the group companies, but financial statements were manipulated to conceal the real picture. The financial positions of MACEL showed that it had negligible business operations, had negative net worth, and was used as conduit by promoters to siphon off money from company. These were sufficient evidence that MACEL lacked the financial strength to repay loans and accordingly recognition of impairment loss allowance and writing off of non-recoverable portion of loans was required to be made but Company did not do so and the Auditors did not question the

The Auditors' contention that section 143(1) of the Act provides certain rights to auditor and does not cast any duty on the auditor is not acceptable as the auditor is required by section 143(1)(b) to inquire whether the transactions of the company which are represented merely by book entries are prejudicial to the

	SA 200	Overall objectives of Independent auditor & conduct of audit in accordance with SA'S	Failure in evaluation of accounting policy relating to recognition of revenue	There is no evidence in the audit file to demonstrate that the EP had obtained from the company its accounting policy on revenue recognition and evaluated whether it was complying with the fundamental principles of accounting standards and whether it was capable of presenting a true and fair view of the affairs of the company. The EP has in this regard referred to his two letters to the Audit Committee, which do not form the part of the audit file, and therefore are rejected as an afterthought. These lapses led to EP's failure in challenging the overstatement of purchase and sales figures and ultimately led to failure in presenting a true and fair position of financials of the company for the FYs 2012-13 and 2013-14. It was noted from the SEBI Order in the case that from December 2012 onwards, around the same time that SSWL started reporting its inflated purchase and sales figures, the price of the SSWL scrip on BSE jumped to 42 and from then onwards the price kept on increasing, reaching around Rs 85 in February 2014 and thereafter the price started declining, again falling to Rs 25.55 in August 2014.

				The SEBI Order noted that SSWL published its financial statements which contained manipulated sales and purchase figures till March 2014. It was observed that such accounting manipulation had serious adverse effect on public interest, as reflected in the share price movements, and it was held that the failure of the EP to properly audit such figures is a clear evidence of his gross negligence and professional misconduct. As pointed out earlier, there was overstatement of sales up to the extent of 1310 crores (i.e., overstatement by 1099% in FY 2012-13 & 272% in FY 2013-14), which is a material misstatement as per Para 13(i) of SA 200.
	SA 240	The Auditor's Responsibilities Relating to Fraud in an Audit of Financial Statements – Para 47 of SA 240	Non evaluation of risk of fraud in revenue recognition	The contention of the EP that he did not presume the risk in revenue underlines the open admission of his gross negligence and lack of due diligence in the face of such contradictions between the reported and actual state of affairs in the Company, which the auditor failed to identify and report and therefore his defence of his actions is baseless. Such a huge increase in revenue as indicated above warranted a risk assessment and therefore, the EP had to document the rationale behind non-presumption of the risk in revenue in compliance with Para 47 of SA 240.

	SA 530	Audit Sampling – Para 7 and 8 of SA 230	Non-selection of sample as prescribed in the SA	It was found that in the statement submitted to SEBI, the EP had stated that the sample of contract notes was selected by SSWL and not by the EP or by his team. The statement of the EP is quoted as below: "I had checked the contract notes on a sample basis. The sample was selected by the company, and I had not sought any specific sample/ trade related contract notes." No audit documentation in the Audit File regarding contract notes was found. Notwithstanding the same, if the reply of the EP to SEBI is to be believed, then there were glaring procedural deficiencies, as the contract notes were selected by the company and not by the EP. The sampling approach of the EP was also not in compliance, which specify appropriate sample size and its selection method. "The auditor shall determine a sample size sufficient to reduce sampling risk to an acceptably low level." SA 530 states that, "The auditor shall select items for the sample in such a way that each sampling unit in the population has a chance of selection." As the sampling was not done by the EP, he failed in his responsibility to ensure an appropriate sample size reflecting the population and reduce the sampling risk to an acceptable level. The EP further stated in his reply to NFRA that "We have verified the Contract note and in my statement to SEBI, it has also been informed.

NFRA Orders

Sr. No.	SA No. Ind AS No.	Reference of SA / Ind AS Para	Topic for Non Compliance	Explanations
				So far, the sampling of the Contract note is concern, we have given certain dates to the accounting persons and over and above those dates we told them to provide the contract notes on some random basis so that at least it will cover a significant number of transactions. After verification, my audit concern person has collected all the contract notes and verified the same with the accounts". It was noted that there is clear contradiction between his reply to SEBI and the replies to NFRA, which establishes that the EP is trying to cover up his non-performance of required audit procedures. Further, there is no mention of the contract notes in the audit file. The EP submitted copies of some contract notes along with reply, which are rejected as an afterthought. Accordingly, it was hold that the EP is responsible for failure to comply with the provisions of SA 530 that led to non-verification of the artificially inflated revenue figures of the company.
	SA 300	Planning an audit of Financial Statement – Para 3,7 & 11 of SA 300	Improper Planning of Audit	Para 3 - Auditor to plan the audit in such a manner that it is performed effectively Para 7- Identifying the characteristics of the engagement, facilitating the EP to define its scope and planning of nature,timing & extent of audit procedures required to be performed to achieve the objective of audit

Learning from NFRA Orders/Report

Sr. No.	SA No. Ind AS No.	Reference of SA / Ind AS Para	Topic for Non Compliance	Explanations
				Para 11 - requires the auditor to document the overall audit strategy, the audit plan & any significant changes made during the audit engagement to such plans The saying that good planning is success half done is quite relevant in the conduct of audit as well. As per SA 300 and 315, the EP was duty bound to understand the business of the entity, assess the specific risks to the entity and plan his audit to mitigate such risks. However, there is no evidence or documentation in the audit file to show that the EP took any steps to understand the business of SSWL and to plan the audit.
	SA 210	Agreeing the Terms of Audit Engagement	Failure to ensure existence of preconditions for the audit	Evidently, the EP allowed himself to work under conditions of scope limitation. The contention of the EP that low quantum of audit fee and non-bearing of travelling expenses by the company cannot be an excuse for non-performance of the statutory duty. We did not find any document which shows that any communication occurred between the EP and Director of the Company. Absent any interaction with the key management, audit committee etc. it is difficult to accept that the EP had understood the business of the entity and its internal controls. The EP's reference to the two letters written by him to the Audit Committee on 1.8.2013 and 31.7.2014 to claim that he understood the business of the entity cannot be accepted as these letters were written at the time of submitting the draft financial statements and cannot be taken as evidence of any significant interaction with management. Moreover, these are not a part of the audit file, not much credence can be attracted to them. If the EP felt that the limitations had been imposed on performing of the audit by constraints such as travel cost etc., then the EP could have chosen not to accept such audit engagement in accordance with SA 210, which he failed do. Accordingly, the reply and explanation of the EP is not acceptable and it was held him guilty of having violated SA 210.

	SA 505	External Confirmation	Non verification of balances of Debtors & Creditors	The EP neither adopted the Audit Procedure of external confirmation of balances of the debtors and the creditors, nor adopted the alternate Audit Procedures. It is only when the EP was questioned through NFRA questionnaire, he came up with some replies in support of his carrying out these procedures. As no Audit Documentation was found in support of his stand, his replies are deemed an afterthought and cannot be accepted. The EP's claim that the external confirmation was done through the SSWL, shows his complete disregard for it being done independently of the entity and does not add the required credibility and value to the Audit. By failing to make independent verification, the EP lost the benefit of external confirmation, through which he could have sensed the degree of grave misstatement in purchase and sales. Proper application of Audit Procedures based on Standards on Auditing could save the EP from improper reporting on the Financials of SSWL.

	SA 260	Communication with Those Charged with Governance – Para 6,7, & 8 of SA 260	Non Communication with TCWG	It was examined the reply of the EP and note that the audit committee is only a sub-group of TCWG and not TCWG in itself. As per Para 6 (a) of SA 260, TCWG is defined as the person(s) or organization(s) (e.g., a corporate trustee) with responsibility for overseeing the strategic direction of the entity and obligations related to the accountability of the entity. This includes overseeing the financial reporting process. For some entities, those charged with governance may include management personnel, for example, executive members of a governance board of a private or public sector entity, or an owner-manager. Therefore, communication of the EP with TCWG was not in accordance with provisions of SA considering the following: a) As per para 7 of SA 260, EP was required to determine TCWG in the first place. For the same, the EP could seek help from paragraphs A5-A12 of SA 260 which elaborates determination of TCWG depending on the diversity of governance structures of different organisations.

Sr. No.	SA No. Ind AS No.	Reference of SA / Ind AS Para	Topic for Non Compliance	Explanations
				However, no such working on the part of the EP to determine TCWG was found in the audit file. b) Further, in case of communicating with the audit committee, Para 8 of SA 260 also required the EP to determine if governing body was also required to be communicated with. There is no audit documentation in the audit file regarding any such process performed by the EP. c) Even the communication with the audit committee, referred to in the reply of the EP, was not part of the audit file, but the EP made the same available at the time of replying to NFRA questionnaire. Further, the EP is misquoting the referred communication as Management Representation Letter and also as communication with the TCWG, which reflects his poor understanding of the Standards on Auditing. In view of the above, the reply and explanation of the EP are not acceptable.

	SA 220	Quality Control for an Audit of Financial Statements – Para 19(a) of SA 220	Non appointment of EQCR	The EP was charged with failure to adhere to the Para 19 (a) of SA 220 which requires appointment of EQCR for the statutory audit of a listed company. Since SSWL is a listed company, the EP was required to determine that EQCR was appointed. In response to above charge, the EP stated that "Appointment of EQCR is only required for which the firm has determined that an engagement quality control review is required. As discussed earlier since, there is no significant transactions, no EQCR was appointed. Obviously, such reply reflects the EP's poor understanding of the provisions of Standards on Audit. As per para 19 (a) of SA 220, in case of a listed company, appointment of EQCR is compulsory. Further, the contention of the EP that there were no significant transactions in the company is false because he himself has claimed to have verified revenue to the tune of Rs 1,791.01 crores for FY 2013-14. Secondly, presuming there were no significant transactions cannot be an excuse for non-adherence to the audit procedures because the standards require appointment of EQCR in case of a listed company. Therefore, such explanation is not satisfactory of the EP in this regard.

Violation of the responsibilities of Joint Auditor	Two Audit firms – XYZ and PQR were appointed as joint statutory auditors , there was no division of audit work among the joint auditors. Hence both the joint auditors were jointly and severally responsible for the entire audit work. While XYZ brought some significant matters to PQR, through various communications starting from the letter. These matters included potentially irrecoverable loans and investments significantly material amount made to group companies, which were portrayed as recoverable. Despite these communications, Engagement Partner failed to carry out any independent procedures on these matters. Also the PQR failed to show any evidence in the Audit File of performing any audit procedures to examine and conclude these matters while it was functioning as a joint auditor. One of the key contentions of Engagement Partner is that XYZ did not share the basis/ rationale for their letters and there were no new circumstances in FY 2018-2019 that warranted such a report. Engagement Partner also argues that XYZ did not raise such concerns in the previous financial year or during the limited review up to the third quarter of FY 2018-2019. According to Engagement Partner, the conclusion of XYZ “appears to have been influenced by media news” and are “unsustainable”. The Audit Firm PQR goes on to say that

				it "also appears that XYZ was finding an excuse to withdraw from the engagement and found an easy route by filing under 143(12) and resigned.....". It was observed that without any comment on the merits of the actions of XYZ, that the replies of the Auditors are a serious deviation from the fundamental tenets of professional skepticism and professional behaviour required of an auditor as per SA 200 and the Code of Ethics 2009. PQR was the statutory auditor appointed under the Act and was responsible for carrying out the audit as per SAs and the Act, and reporting whether the financial statements and accounts represented a true and fair view of the affairs of the Company. Examining and commenting on the conduct of the joint auditor, who is legally on the same footing as that of PQR, is beyond the scope of section 143 of the Act and the SAs. Thus, based on the above, it stands proved that Engagement Partner and PQR failed to comply with the requirements of SA 299 (Revised) regarding the responsibilities of the joint auditor as there is no evidence in the Audit File that the Auditors performed independent procedures on matters brought to their notice and came to any conclusions regarding XYZ's observations when it was brought to their notice. Hence the charges in para 13 above regarding violation of SA 299 (Revised) are proved.

	Section 143(12) of Companies Act, 2013	Fraud Reporting to CG	Self review of Financial Statements	Reporting under Section 143(12) is a duty cast on the auditor. Section 143(12) mandates that if an auditor of a company in the course of the performance of his duties as auditor, has reason to believe that an offence of fraud involving such amount or amounts as may be prescribed, is being or has been committed in the company by its officers or employees, the auditor shall report the matter to the Central Government. Further, Rule 13 of the Companies (Audit and Auditors) Amendment Rules, 2015 and Form ADT – 4 provide the manner of reporting and SA 240 provides the basic requirements while auditing. These provide that the auditor reporting the suspected fraud will first take it up with the Audit Committee and the Board seeking their views within 45 days and then file the report in the form ADT-4. All these stipulations when read together make it clear that the reporting on fraud in the course of performance of duties as an auditor is applicable when the auditor has reason to believe and has knowledge that a fraud has occurred or is occurring based on evidence obtained and the professional judgements made. Once it is reported to the MCA, the legal determination of the fraud and admitting or ruling out fraud is a regulatory matter. Neither the Company nor the auditor is competent to make a conclusive legal determination of a statutory matter reported by the auditor as per his evidence and mandate

				provided in the Act. The normal course of action in this situation for any prudent Company could be initiating an independent investigation into the alleged matters to bring out the truth. However, the points raised by the XYZ were not responded to by the Audit Committee and the Board within 45 days following which XYZ reported the matter under section 143 (12) and also resigned on 11.6.2019. The Audit Committee and the Board thereafter asked the PQR on 12.6.2019 to examine the matter and EP shortly thereafter on 25.06.2019 ruled out any fraud based on their interpretation of the Law and limited and inadequate examination of data produced by the RCL. Using this conclusion of PQR the Company management, its Audit Committee and the Board acquitted themselves of their statutory responsibility in respect of an alleged fraud against them. Engagement Partner and the Audit Firm PQR, in turn, became a willing accomplice by displaying gross negligence of their statutory responsibility. Thus, in this case, P QR ruled out fraud reported by another joint auditor. Also, they did so on being asked by the Audit Committee. It may be noted that the Audit Committee had not even responded to the points raised by XYZ within the 45 days statutory limit The management used PQR's said work (done without adequate rigor) as a disclosure in the financial statements. These financial statements were then audited and an EoM was then included in the Auditor's report that relied on the disclosure made by the management (which itself was based on the Auditor's examination). Thus, the actions of PQR amount to self-reviewing the financial statements.

EP also documented in the Audit File that the XYZ's reporting was unwarranted. In this regard, EP and the Audit Firm were charged with issuing an EoM without basis and in violation of Paragraph 8 of SA 706 (Revised). Notwithstanding the above misrepresentation in the EoM, it is also not in accordance with the requirements of the standards. As per Para 8 of SA 706 (revised) if the auditor considers it necessary to draw users' attention to a matter presented or disclosed in the financial statements that, in the auditor's judgment, is of such importance that it is fundamental to users' understanding of the financial statements, the auditor shall include an EoM paragraph in the auditor's report, provided the auditor would not be required to modify the opinion in accordance with SA 705 (Revised) Thus, the EoM was based on matters which were not adequately disclosed in the financial

Apart from referring to this the EoM also contains PQR's finding (which was already documented in the Working Paper well before the Board noted this) that the matters reported by XYZ do not attract Section 143(12). The EoM did not mention that the audit opinion is not modified in this regard. The above actions of PQR violate SA 706(Revised). Because of these violations, the Audit Report provided a misleading impression to the users. In the absence of tests and evidence, there was no assurance about the recoverability of the loans and hence the management's assertions about the value and rights of these loans were materially misstated in the financial statements, which PQR failed to report. These factors cumulatively contributed to the ROMM due to fraud, which PQR ruled out without adequate audit procedures, despite having been raised by the resigned joint auditor. The conclusion drawn by the Auditors that there were no material misstatements in the financial statements, either due to fraud or error, is therefore without adequate basis since there is no sufficient evidence showing that the loans of ₹ 6557 crore (net of impairment) disclosed in the financial statements are fairly presented and are fully recoverable. Consequently, the opinion of PQR confirming the management's assertions is without adequate basis. Nowhere in the SAs or SQC 1 does it state that the documentation requirements of Para 73 of SQC 1 and Para 25 of SA 220 (both the requirements are similar) are the only documentation requirements that the EQC Reviewer shall follow. 				requirements of other SAs do not limit the application of SA 230. As per SA 230, Audit documentation serves several purposes including evidence that the audit is planned and performed in accordance with the SAs. Therefore, performance by the EQCR of the mandatory requirements of SA 220 shall be evidenced by documentation, adhering to the principles of SA 230, particularly Paras 8, 9 and 10. The mandatory requirements for EQCR are specified in paras 20 and 21 of SA 220. The key procedures specified include a discussion of significant judgements made by the ET, a review of Financial Statements and a review of selected audit documentation. Documentation of a mandatory procedure in an SA is a compulsory requirement of SA 230 and it forms the base of any audit under the Companies Act since SAs need to be statutorily complied with. Since it is the statutory responsibility of the auditor to comply with all the SAs including SA 220. Hence it is imperative that to meet the requirements of SA 220 and SQC 1, the documentation done by the EQCR shall have to be per the requirements of SA 230 and SA 220. Documentation prepared as per SA 230 and specific documentation requirements of other SAs provide evidence that the audit is performed following SAs and the applicable legal and regulatory requirements (Para 2 of SA 230).

				Thus, specific documentation requirements of any SA alone cannot meet this requirement, since mandatory procedures are prescribed in all the SAs. SA 220 is no exception as far as EQCR is concerned. Thus, we conclude that the EQCR Partner failed to objectively evaluate and question EP when EP failed to meet the relevant requirements of the SAs and violated the Act, and the Code of Ethics in respect of several significant areas. Hence the charges in Paragraph 63 above stand proved.

The auditors merely presented the matter as EoM instead of modifying their opinion in accordance with SA 705. The auditors claimed that they had qualified their opinion on the basis of "The company's loans have been declared by the Banks/Financial Institution as Non Performing Assets" and they also submitted "In addition to this qualified opinion, we had mentioned non-recognition of liability on Non-performing Assets

But the auditors report states that the auditors qualified their opinion on the basis of going concern of CMIL. Non-recognition of the liabilities towards banks/financial institutions even after they declared NPAs is not in conformity with Para 3.3.1 and Para 4.2.1 read with Para B5.4.1 of Ind AS 109. This is a "Misstatement" as per Para 13(i) of SA 200 resulting in understatement of the interest cost, current liabilities, and the reported loss by the Company. The auditors were required to qualify the amount of mis-statement and duly modify the opinion in accordance with SA 705. Merely presenting the matter as EoM was in violation of SA 705. Para 8 of SA 706 states that the auditor shall include an EoM paragraph in the auditor's report, provided the auditor would not be required to modify the opinion in accordance with SA 705 as a result of the matter. Therefore, inclusion in the EoM of a matter that would have required consideration for modifying the audit opinion was a violation of SA 706.

Such indicators included continuous declining trend in Revenue From Operations of CMIL, Profit After Tax (PAT), Net Worth, Book Value per Share of CMIL and also negative working capital in FY 20-21. Despite the presence of such indicators, no evidence was found in the Audit File of the management's assessment of the entity's ability to continue as a going concern; nor was any evaluation conducted by the auditor of such assumption as required by Para 7 and Para 12 read with Para A 7 and A9 of SA 570. The auditors examined CMIL's declining turnover and negative PAT, prompting them to inquire about management's approach to preparing financial statements under the going concern principle for FY 2020-21. There is no evidence that the auditors performed additional audit procedures like analysis of the cash flows for the next 12 months to determine whether or not a material uncertainty existed relating to the events or conditions that could cast significant doubt on CMIL's ability to continue as a Going Concern. Para A3 of SA 570 is an illustrative list of events/conditions that cast doubt on the ability of an entity to continue as a Going Concern. These indicators include negative operating cash flows indicated by Financial Statements, adverse key financial ratios, substantial operating losses, inability to comply with the terms of loan agreements etc. It is pertinent to note that all such indicators were present during the FY 2021-22 and therefore, the auditors were duty bound to obtain evidence in support of the use of going concern basis and had to evaluate the same to conclude if any material uncertainty existed regarding the Going Concern.

Para 47 of SA 240 states that when the auditor has concluded that the presumption that there is a risk of material misstatement due to fraud related to revenue recognition is not applicable in the circumstances of the engagement, the auditor shall document the reasons for that conclusion. Despite the auditors' assertion of verification through GST returns and reconciliation, the absence of supporting evidence in the Audit File raised concerns. Crucially, they neglected to assess revenue recognition against the company's policy and omitted documentation of essential audit procedures. Fundamental assertions such as occurrence, completeness, and accuracy of revenue lacked sufficient verification. The shortfall extended to the absence of GST returns and sample invoices, further undermining their position. The auditors were thus accused of gross negligence and a lack of due diligence, indicating a failure to fulfill their obligations according to auditing standards and global regulatory expectations.

Para 9 specifies that documentation should include identifying characteristics of items tested, personnel involved, and review details. In their response, the auditors claimed that previously submitted documentation would suffice for understanding audit procedures and outcomes. They also submitted various documents as part of their response, including physical verification copies, bank sanction letters, and balance confirmation letters. This deficiency was highlighted with references to global audit regulators like ASIC and PCAOB, which similarly emphasize the importance of comprehensive documentation. In past cases such as penalties and sanctions were imposed for insufficient documentation, reinforcing the seriousness of such lapses. Consequently, the auditors' explanation was deemed unacceptable, and they were found to be grossly negligent in adhering to SA 230.

According to SA 501, when inventory holds material significance, auditors must obtain sufficient appropriate evidence through physical inventory counting or examination of final inventory records. Even if physical counting occurs on a date different from the financial statements, additional procedures to verify inventory changes are required. In unforeseen circumstances preventing physical counting, auditors must conduct

In response, the auditors cited constraints in conducting physical verification amid the COVID-19 outbreak for fiscal years 2019-20, 2020-21, and 2021-22. They provided stock taking details and management letters and also claimed to have conducted the physical verification in April. However, NFRA found no adequate evidence/documentation of physical verification of inventories, the Audit File merely contains the stock statements as prepared by CMIL. Consequently, the auditors' response was deemed misleading and insufficient, indicating gross negligence in complying with SA 501 requirements. International regulatory bodies like the PCAOB have similarly viewed lapses in inventory audit seriously, with sanctions imposed for failure to obtain adequate audit evidence. In cases such as AMC Auditing, LLC, and W.T. Uniack CPA, P.C., sanctions were levied due to insufficient evidence and a lack of professional care in inventory auditing, emphasizing the necessity of rigorous audit procedures for inventory verification.

According to Para 11 of SA 700, to assert that the Financial Statements are free from material misstatements, auditors must gather adequate audit evidence. In response, the auditors asserted compliance with SA requirements, claiming to have obtained audit evidence before forming their opinion. They referred to documents submitted with their response to the SCN. However, the audit review found their explanation erroneous and an afterthought. Several instances of material misstatements were identified where auditors failed to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence, yet certified the Financial Statements of CMIL for fiscal years 2019-2020, 2020-21, and 2021-22 (excluding going concern) as reflecting a true and fair view. This demonstrated a lack of understanding and application of SA provisions, reflecting a casual approach to auditing a Public Interest Entity (PIE). The auditor's opinion in the audit report carries significant weight, serving as assurance to stakeholders about the accuracy of the Financial Statements. Failure to form an opinion without sufficient evidence represents not only gross negligence but also a breach of trust placed by users of the Financial Statements. Consequently, the auditors' response

Despite CMIL's status as a listed company for fiscal years 2019-2020, 2020-21, and 2021-22, no evidence was found in the Audit File indicating the appointment of an EQC Reviewer or any review work performed by one. The auditors did not address this charge in their response to the SCN. The role of an EQC Reviewer in auditing listed entities is critical for ensuring quality. This individual evaluates significant judgments made by the Engagement Team (ET), reviews the firm's independence evaluation, ensures appropriate consultation on difficult matters, and reviews the conclusions forming the overall audit opinion. Such responsibilities necessitate the formal appointment of an EQC Reviewer with sufficient experience and authority. Consequently, the auditors' failure to appoint an EQC Reviewer was deemed gross negligence, violating SA 220

These actions underscore the importance of adherence to audit standards and the seriousness of lapses in engagement quality control, reflecting the regulatory emphasis on maintaining audit quality and integrity.

In response, the auditors claimed to select samples covering a major portion of transactions and verify material ones, submitting a materiality statement. However, the audit review found their response misleading and unacceptable. No evidence existed in the Audit File to demonstrate compliance with SA 320 and ICAI guidance on materiality. The document submitted lacked authenticity, lacking the seal and signature of the EP. SA 320 mandates the determination of materiality for the Financial Statements and performance materiality during the overall audit strategy establishment. The use of "shall" in Para 10 and 11 of SA 320 highlights the mandatory nature of these requirements.

The failure to verify balances through alternative procedures, despite the lack of responses from debtors, further raised concerns about their audit approach. Consequently, the auditors were deemed grossly negligent in performing their duties in violation of SA 200, SA 500, and SA 505. Despite the standard's directives on performing risk assessment procedures to identify material misstatement risks due to fraud, the EP's audit documentation lacked evidence of adequate procedures. The EP claimed to have enquired about an FIR against SRS Group's managerial personnel and the company's stock exchange intimation about fraud/default, yet no substantial information was obtained. The EP reported the matter to the MCA, citing a prudent approach, although not obligated to report it. However, the reply lacked supporting audit documentation for the extensive internal control checks, analytical procedures, substantive testing, and sampling claimed to have been performed. The NFRA found the EP's explanation misleading, highlighting significant indicators of unusual/suspicious activities, such as a drastic decline in inventory levels and substantial provisions against trade receivables. Despite these indicators, the EP failed to provide evidence of appropriate audit procedures. Moreover, the EP's quarterly review reports on internal financial results had been qualified due to uncertainties and highlighted

Furthermore, the EP failed to adequately evaluate unusual transactions or the reasons behind significant provisions made by the company. The audit documentation also lacked clarity on population size, sample selection, and handling of discrepancies, violating SA 230 requirements. The NFRA concluded that the EP's negligence and lack of due diligence in ignoring indicators of potential fraud constituted a breach of responsibilities under both the Companies Act and SA 240.

Most of the submitted audit work papers failed to meet the basic requirements outlined in SA 230 regarding the nature, timing, and extent of audit procedures performed, as well as the identification of personnel involved and review details. Furthermore, the index of the audit file indicated the presence of an audit program, yet it was missing from the submitted documents, suggesting incomplete documentation. This incompleteness raised concerns about the integrity of the audit file and the possibility of tampering. Such tampering has been considered a serious concern by regulators like the PCAOB, leading to penal actions against auditors. Appropriate and timely documentation of audit procedures is crucial for ensuring the integrity of the audit process and forming the basis for audit opinions. Inadequate documentation and failure to archive the audit file within the stipulated time reflect a serious deficiency in performing an audit. Without proper documentation, it is impossible to ascertain whether the required audit procedures were indeed performed. Based on these findings, the EP's response was deemed unacceptable, and it was concluded that the EP was grossly negligent in performing their duties in accordance with SA 230 and Para 75 of SQC 1.

	SA 570, SA 705	Para 12 & 23 of SA 570,	Lapses relating to Going Concern basis of accounting	The EP faced charges of noncompliance with SA 570 concerning the audit of financial statements related to the "Going Concern" assumption. Despite several adverse indicators in the financial statements as of March 31, 2018, suggesting doubts about the company's ability to continue as a going concern, the EP failed to adequately evaluate management's assessment as required by Para 12 of SA 570. In response to the charge, the EP claimed to have attempted an evaluation by querying management about the going concern assumption and holding discussions regarding projected revenues. However, the EP found the management's responses insufficient to substantiate the company's ability to continue as a going concern. Consequently, the EP issued a qualified opinion based on the presence of material uncertainty. However, the NFRA found several deficiencies in the EP's response and audit documentation: <ol style="list-style-type: none"> 1. Lack of evidence in the audit file of any assessment made by the EP regarding the going concern assumption, including failure to evaluate indicators listed in Para A3 of SA 570. 2. The EP's failure to give an appropriate audit opinion was considered a breach of professional competence, due care, and trust. Such a conclusion shall take into account, inter alia, whether sufficient appropriate audit evidence has been obtained and whether uncorrected misstatements are material, individually or in aggregate. In the Annexures to the audit report, EP noted that for some of the loan files reviewed required documents were not obtained. In another case, in the Annexure to the audit report titled "BRANCH AUDITOR AUDIT OF BRANCH'S FINANCIAL INFORMATION SUMMARY MEMORANDUM - AS A WHOLE", has a specific requirement to certify whether the unadjusted misstatements are material or immaterial. However, under "Overall Evaluation of Misstatements" the EP neither certified that "The unadjusted misstatements are immaterial" nor that "The unadjusted misstatements are material". 	SA 300	Para 6, 7, 8, 9 & 10 of SA 300	Non-compliance with SA	EP failed in establishing an overall audit strategy and development of audit plan etc. in accordance with SA 300. The EP submitted an audit plan made for the year 2013-14 and stated that "...had a properly documented audit plan available in the audit file for previous years. Therefore documentation displaying an overall audit strategy and development of an audit plan for FY 2017-18 was felt not necessary, in view of the fact that it was not an audit of financial statements, and because there was room for the audit documentation to be adapted as necessary in the circumstances, as per SA 230". The replies were not acceptable since SA 300 requires the auditor to include in the audit plan the timing of the audit and to update and change the overall audit strategy and the audit plan as necessary during the course of the audit. The audit plan made in 2013-14 has not been updated to meet the requirements of the audit in 17-18. The EP's contentions that since the audit fee is low, the "Audit plan and strategy in such cases are not required to be complex that necessitate detailed documentation" and the audit plan is not required since the scope of work is "well defined" have no basis in the SAs.

	IND AS 115	Revenue Recognition	Significant Accounting Policies Note 1.6 Revenue Recognition	NFRA observes that the accounting policy stated in respect of a material element of financial statement i.e., Revenue (with corresponding impact on related assets) is erroneously stated in its significant accounting policy. Based on the KIOCL's response actual accounting is different from what is stated in the audited financial statements in many important aspects of recognition and measurement of revenue which has impact on the amount of and timing of revenue recognition by the Company. This kind of erroneous disclosure of accounting policy raises questions over the reliability of the financial statements of the Company. Therefore, KIOCL is advised to undertake a comprehensive review of the accounting principles actually followed for the financial year 2019-20 vis-a-vis the requirements of applicable Ind ASs and revise and restate its financial statements for the financial year after complying with the provisions of section 131 of the Companies Act, 2013 and Ind AS 8.

				Paragraph 5.4.1 of Ind AS 109 states that interest revenue shall be calculated by using the effective interest rate method however KIOCL has the policy of recognition of interest on “accrual basis subject to certainty of realization” which is inconsistent with the recognition requirement of Paragraph 5.4.1 of Ind AS 109. Thus, KIOCL has not complied with the Paragraph 5.4.1 of Ind AS 109.
	Ind AS 109	Financial Instrument	Significant Accounting Policies Note 1.14 Impairment of Financial Assets	KIOCL assumption that the trade receivables backed by Bank's Letters of Credit is inappropriate. Secondly, KIOCL has reported substantial amount (₹ 3,514.03 lakh) of its total trade receivables as unsecured. Therefore, KIOCL should have assessed the credit risk in a holistic manner including consideration of forecast future conditions. It should be noted that the paragraph B5.5.35 of Ind AS 109, which permits use of practical expedient to apply provision matrix based on past due period, requires adjustment of historical loss factors for changes in the current and future forecast conditions. Accordingly, KIOCL is advised to reassess its impairment loss allowance for the financial year 2019-20 keeping in mind the underlying principles of ECL approach of Ind AS 109. KIOCL has also not complied with credit risk exposure disclosure of paragraph 35 of Ind AS 107 which requires disclosure of gross carrying amounts based on provision matrix used by the entity.

In this respect, disclosure requirement of Paragraph 36 (g) of Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 2, Inventories (Ind AS 2) states that: The financial statements shall disclose: the circumstances or events that led to the reversal of a write-down of inventories in accordance with paragraph 34". NFRA observes that KIOCL has not complied with Paragraph 36(g) of Ind AS 2.
	IND AS 36	Impairment of Assets	Other notes forming part of FS : Impairment of assets	NFRA has examined the response of KIOCL and observes that it has not provided any suitable and adequate evidence such as valuation done by management expert to support the contention that there the recoverable amount of each class of assets is more than carrying amount and therefore no impairment loss is expected. Paragraph 9 of Indian Accounting Standard (Ind AS) 36, Impairment of Assets (Ind AS 36) states that: "An entity shall assess at the end of each reporting period whether there is any indication that an asset may be impaired. If any such indication exists, the entity shall estimate the recoverable amount of the asset." Further no supporting documents provided by KIOCL for observations above. Therefore,

	IND AS 109	Financial Instruments	Other notes forming part of FS : Financial Risk management	KIOCL's accounting policy for Fx Forward Contracts is erroneous and it is in non-compliance with the classification and measurement requirements of Ind AS 109. As of Balance Sheet Date, outstanding amount of Fx Forward Contracts were ₹ 8,382.03 lakh and as ₹ 4,834.55 lakh as of March 31, 2020 & March 31, 2019, respectively and the KIOCL does not apply Hedge Accounting for these contracts. Fx Forward Contracts meet the definition of Derivative (Refer Appendix A to Ind AS 109) and are therefore, within the scope of recognition and measurement requirements of Ind AS 109. These financial instruments have to be classified as Fair Value through Profit or Loss (FVTPL) and outstanding Fx Forward Contracts shall be measured at fair value with unrealised gain or loss to be recognised in the Statement of Profit and Loss with corresponding recognised as financial asset or financial liability at each Balance Sheet Date. Fx Forward Contracts are Derivative instruments and do not meet the contractual cash flow characteristics conditions in paragraphs 4.1.2(b) and 4.1.2A(b) of Ind AS 109 and cannot be

	Ind AS 109	Para 5.1.1 of Ind AS 109, Para 5.1.3 of Ind AS 109,	Initial measurement policy for Trade Receivables	The NFRA observed a discrepancy in the accounting policy of the company regarding the initial measurement of financial assets, particularly trade receivables, as detailed in Note 2.12 of the Annual Report. The company stated that all financial assets are initially recognized at fair value, which contradicts the requirements outlined in Ind AS 109, specifically Para 5.1.1 and Para 5.1.3. Para 5.1.1 of Ind AS 109 stipulates that financial assets should be measured at fair value plus or minus transaction costs directly attributable to their acquisition or issue. However, Para 5.1.3 provides an exception for trade receivables, which are to be measured at their transaction price, not fair value, if they do not contain a significant financing component. In response, the company argued that Note 2.12 describes the expected lifetime losses to be recognized from the initial recognition of receivables and that they use historical default rates to determine impairment loss. However, the NFRA maintained that the initial measurement policy for trade receivables must adhere to the requirements of Ind AS 109, which mandates measuring them at transaction price, not fair value. Additionally, the NFRA noted the company's disclosure regarding revenue recognition in Note 2.15, which further highlighted the

Additionally, they mentioned that contract terms vary for each client, so they did not provide generalized terms in the notes. NFRA observed that the company's disclosure about payment terms being as per business practice was vague and lacked critical information useful for assessing the entity's ability to generate cash and cash equivalents. Furthermore, the lack of details on Trade Receivables due for payment in less than a year did not justify the application of Para 63 of Ind AS 115. Although the company stated that there were no contract terms with significant financing components, it did not disclose how it assessed this fact or whether it applied the practical expedient clause in Para 63 of Ind AS 115. Para 129 of Ind AS 115 requires disclosure if an entity elects to use the practical expedient in Para 63, but the company did not make this disclosure. Consequently, NFRA concluded that PSP Projects Ltd. did not adequately comply with the disclosure requirements of Ind AS 115. During the in-person discussion, NFRA emphasized that disclosure requirements under Para 119 of

	IND AS 115	Para 114 of Ind AS 115	Non-fulfilment of disclosure requirements in respect of disaggregation of revenue from contracts	The Company's disclosure in Note 39 regarding the disaggregation of revenue from contracts with customers only by geographical area does not comply with the requirements of Para 114 of Ind AS 115. This paragraph requires revenue to be disaggregated into categories reflecting how the nature, amount, timing, and uncertainty of revenue and cash flows are affected by economic factors. Para B89 of Ind AS 115 provides guidance on disaggregating revenue based on various criteria, including type of good or service, geographical region, market or type of customer, type of contract, contract duration, timing of transfer of goods or services, and sales channels. In response, the Company stated that their disclosures referred to the timing of revenue recognition, mentioning whether revenue recognition occurred over time or at a point in time. However, NFRA observed that the Company's operations spanned various sectors and involved providing services across the construction value chain, including planning, design, construction, post-construction activities, and other interior fit-outs. These services represent separate

				business lines, and hence disaggregation by type of good or service was necessary but not provided. Additionally, the Company serves different categories of customers, making disaggregation of revenue based on customer types essential. Despite the Company's explanation that its operations are limited to a single business line and that revenue characteristics are similar across various contracts, NFRA directed the Company to consider disaggregating revenue based on market or type of customer, type of contract, and contract duration. During the in-person discussion, NFRA emphasized the importance of understanding the underlying principle of disclosure and considering disaggregation based on various criteria, as illustrated in the relevant Ind AS Implementation Guidance examples.

This deficiency is not in compliance with the requirements outlined in Para 25 of Ind AS 107 and Paras 91 and 93 of Ind AS 113. Para 25 of Ind AS 107 stipulates that an entity must disclose the fair value of each class of assets and liabilities in a way that permits comparison with its carrying amount.

				Additionally, Paras 91 and 93 of Ind AS 113 require disclosure of valuation techniques, inputs, and the level of the fair value hierarchy within which the fair value measurements are categorized. In response, the Company referred to its measurement criteria and stated that since all financial assets and liabilities are measured at amortized cost, the carrying amount reflects the fair value. However, NFRA disagreed with this assertion, highlighting that the definitions of amortized cost and fair value in Ind AS 109 and Ind AS 113 respectively contradict this claim. NFRA concluded that the Company's response did not align with the requirements of Ind AS 107 and directed the Company to review its disclosure practices comprehensively to ensure compliance with the aforementioned standards.
	Ind AS 116	Para 22 of Ind AS 116	Inadequate disclosure regarding Lease Rental Expenses	NFRA observed that in Note 30, the Company disclosed Rent Expense without specifying whether it had applied the practical expedient for accounting short-term leases, as per Para 6 of Ind AS 116. This expedient allows entities to recognize lease payments as expenses rather than recognizing the lease transaction as a right-of-use asset with a corresponding lease liability, as mandated by Para 22 of Ind AS 116. The Company acknowledged this oversight and committed to enhancing its disclosure practices to align with the requirements of Ind AS 116 in the future. Specifically, they stated their intention to explicitly mention their election for

	Ind AS 1, Ind AS 8	Paragraph 41 of Ind AS 1, Paragraph 42 of Ind AS 8	Disclosures of regroupings/ re-classifications	It appears that the Company's response to the disclosure requirements of Paragraph 41 of Ind AS 1 lacks sufficient detail and clarity. While the Company asserts that no reclassification or regroupings were made in the Balance Sheet and Statement of Profit and Loss, it fails to provide specific details or explanations regarding the nature of any regroupings or reclassifications that may have occurred. NFRA's observation rightly points out the absence of such details, which are essential for users of the Financial Statements to understand any changes in presentation or classification. Furthermore, it raises valid concerns regarding whether any reclassifications were due to correction of prior period errors as defined in Ind AS 8, and if so, whether restatement of amounts was necessary as required by Paragraph 42 of Ind AS 8. The Company's plan to review the relevance and requirement of this disclosure for future annual reports is a positive step. However, it's important for them to ensure that their disclosures comply with the relevant accounting standards, providing clear and transparent information to stakeholders. They should consider providing more specific details regarding any reclassifications or regroupings, including the nature, amount, and reason for such changes, to enhance

	Ind AS 10	Paragraph 17 of Ind AS 10	Non-disclosure regarding shareholders' powers to amend the Financial Statements	The Company's response regarding the disclosure requirements of Paragraph 17 of Ind AS 10 raises some valid points but may still fall short of full compliance with the standard. While it's true that the Financial Statements were approved for issue by the Audit Committee and Board of Directors, and this approval is disclosed in Note No. 45 of the Financial Statements, the Company's argument that no separate disclosure is needed regarding the shareholders' power to amend the Financial Statements might not fully address the requirements of Ind AS 10. Ind AS 10 specifically mandates the disclosure of whether the entity's owners or others have the power to amend the financial statements after issue. While it's acknowledged that the Companies Act grants certain powers to shareholders, including the ability to revise financial statements, providing explicit disclosure regarding this power ensures transparency and clarity for users of the financial statements. Therefore, the Company should consider providing additional disclosure explicitly stating whether shareholders or others have the power to amend the financial statements after issue, in line with the requirements of Ind AS 10. This would help ensure full compliance and enhance transparency in financial reporting.

	Ind AS 109		Deficiencies relating to Impairment Loss with reference to Financial Instruments	NFRA observes deficiencies in implementing the provisions of Ind AS 109 Financial Instruments relating to impairment loss allowance (provisioning) for some of the financial assets viz. Trade Receivables and other financial assets. The company did not evaluate impairment loss allowance on 'Unbilled Revenue1' (under Other Current Asset) despite it being a contract asset2 for which the company was required to evaluate impairment loss in accordance with the requirements of Ind AS 109.

	Ind AS 19	Para 135 of Ind AS 19	Lack of Proper Discloser with reference to employee benefit	The Company did not make the required disclosure for Employee Benefits-Pensions in accordance with Para 135 of Ind AS 19 regarding defined contribution plans. The note provided by the Company lacks clarity on whether the employee benefit of Pension is a defined benefit plan or a defined contribution plan. Such disclosure is important to enable the users of financial statements to understand the characteristics of the benefit plans, the consequential liabilities of the Company and the risks associated with them.
	Ind AS 109	Para 4.2.1 of Ind AS 109	Failure to properly account Financial Guarantee	ISGEC has given corporate guarantees to the banks to secure the credit facilities granted by the banks to three of its subsidiaries. These corporate guarantees should have been accounted for as financial guarantees in accordance with Para 4.2.1 of Ind AS 109. But the Company has not done the same, resulting in non-compliance with the requirements of Ind AS 109.
	Ind AS 103		Failure to make proper discloser with regards to overseas Acquisition	ISGEC acquired another overseas company through one of its wholly owned subsidiaries during the year but did not disclose this transaction in the consolidated financial statements of ISGEC in accordance with the requirements of Ind AS 103 Business Combinations. The Company has not made adequate disclosures in this regard.

	Ind AS 109		Failure to Evaluate Impairment loss	The overseas company so acquired was in distress due to financial difficulties, but ISGEC did not evaluate impairment loss on its investment value in its subsidiary in accordance with Ind AS 109. Though the amount involved is not material, this shows weakness in the internal controls with respect to impairment evaluation by the company. Also, ISGEC has earlier provided a loan to the same wholly owned subsidiary but did not evaluate the increase in credit risk on this loan as per the requirements of Ind AS 109.
	Ind AS 115		Failure to give disclouser as per Ind AS 115	NFRA has observed that certain information regarding 'significant payment terms' (e.g. when a payment is due) as required by Ind AS 115 Revenue from contracts with customers is not disclosed in the notes to the financial statement of the Company. Also, disclosure regarding 'obligations for returns, refunds, and other similar obligations has not been made by the Company. This disclosure is mandatory as per Ind AS 115. According to Ind AS 115 Revenue from contracts with customers, an entity is required to disclose its method used to recognize revenue and why this method provides a faithful depiction of transfer of goods and services. The company's disclosures fall short of the above requirement insofar as the explanations why the method used provides a faithful depiction of the transfer of goods and services is concerned.

1	Jaiprakash Associates Limited			File No. NF-20011/9/2019-O/O
	SA 705	Para 8 of SA 705	False and misleading reporting	NFRA found that the Audit Firm's reporting in the "Basis of opinion" section of Independent Auditors Report is false and misleading. The impact of the transactions violative of accounting and auditing standards, as identified in this AQRR are such that the profit before tax of Rs. 351.71 crores, as reported in the financial statements, would have turned into a loss of at least Rs. 3,215.77 crores. This impact is both material and pervasive. As a result, the Audit Firm was bound, under the SAs, to issue an adverse opinion (Para 8 of SA 705).
	SA 706		Extensive use of EOM para reducing its effectiveness	The Audit Firm compromised with the effectiveness of the auditor's report by widespread use of Emphasis of Matter (EOM) Paragraphs. The Audit Firm has provided eight EOMs in the financial statements of FY 2017-18. Para A3 of SA 706 states that widespread use of Emphasis of Matter Paragraphs diminishes the effectiveness of the auditor's communication of such matters. Further, the Audit Firm failed to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence for providing these EOMs that was required as per SA 706.

			Failure to access Risk of Material Misstatement (ROMM)	It was observed that the audit firm did not satisfactory rebut the presumption of ROMM due to fraud in respect of revenue recognition and management override of controls. This ultimately resulted in several violations of applicable provisions of Ind AS and SAs. Further, the Audit Firm had not identified and assessed ROMM through understanding the entity and its environment, including the entity's internal control. There were no ROMM procedures performed by the Audit at the assertion level. The Audit Firm has failed to perform the audit with professional skepticism and has failed to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to reduce ROMM to an acceptably low level.
	Ind AS 36, Ind AS 28		Valuation of Investment	JAL's financial exposure in its subsidiaries, associates and joint ventures amounting to Rs. 6,894.02 crore was not properly valued as per the applicable Accounting Standards. The Audit Firm failed to obtain sufficient appropriate evidence on correct valuation of JAL's investment in these entities.
	Ind AS 105			The Company's accounting treatment for Non-Current Assets held for sale was not in accordance with the accounting standards, which led to a huge misstatement in the financial statements. The Audit firm also failed to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence in this regard.

	IND AS 109	IND AS 109 - Financial Instruments	Lapses in Audit of Investments	The audit of investments at IL&FS, valued at ₹ 12,320 Crore, highlighted pervasive shortcomings under IND AS 109. The audit firm failed to verify investments adequately in 80% of cases, omitted crucial use of valuation experts, and improperly evaluated impairment losses. A staggering ₹ 1,637 Crore lacked verification evidence, and management neglected to individually assess each investment for impairment, flouting IND AS 109's rigorous standards. These oversights, including ignoring clear impairment indicators such as insolvency and declining market values, led to inflated profits reported in the financial statements, undermining the standard's core principles of accurate financial reporting and transparency.
	SA 550	Related Party Transactions	Lapses in Audit of Loans and Advances	The audit of loans and advances at IL&FS, amounting to ₹ 8,124 Crore disbursed to 26 related parties, exposed serious non-compliance with SA 550. The audit firm violated Section 177 of the Companies Act, 2013, governing related party transactions, and failed to mitigate risks associated with management override, evergreening, and loan rollovers. Furthermore, the audit documentation was found inadequate, lacking sufficient evidence of procedures performed, thereby compromising the reliability and integrity of the audit process as mandated by SA 550.

			Lapses in Audit of Revenue from Operations	Revenue from related parties accounted for 93% of IL&FS's total revenue, amounting to ₹ 1,899 Crore, yet the audit firm fell short of compliance with SA 550. Violations of Section 177 of the Companies Act, 2013, regarding related party transactions were evident. The audit firm neglected to verify revenue occurrence, completeness, and accuracy and failed to critically evaluate management's assertions regarding arm's length transactions. These failures directly contravened SA 550's requirements, highlighting significant deficiencies in audit procedures and reporting standards.
	SA 200	Overall Objectives of an Independent Auditor and Compliance with Standards on Auditing	Failure to Comply with Basic Audit Requirements	The audit at IL&FS revealed multiple instances of non-compliance with basic audit requirements under SA 200. Two associate companies were improperly excluded from the Consolidated Financial Statements against the provisions of the Companies Act, 2013. Materiality and performance materiality thresholds were not effectively applied, with inadequate communication with Those Charged With Governance (TCWG). Additionally, the audit firm

				displayed an incorrect understanding of auditing standards as 'principle-based' rather than mandatory, failing to assess risks of material misstatement adequately. These failures underscored fundamental deficiencies in audit planning, execution, and reporting. The findings of the NFRA reveal a stark deficiency in the audit firm's adherence to SA 200, leading to a lack of reasonable assurance in the audit of IL&FS's financial statements. NFRA concludes that the audit firm issued its audit report without achieving reasonable assurance regarding the financial statements' freedom from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. This critical failure highlights significant shortcomings in the audit procedures performed by the firm. Particularly, the audit firm's failure to exercise professional skepticism, as mandated by SA 200, contributed to overlooking substantial issues such as impairment of investments, evergreening of loans, and related party transactions. By not sufficiently challenging management assertions and claims, the audit firm compromised the integrity and reliability of the audit process, failing to meet the stringent requirements set forth by SA 200.

	SA 220	Engagement Quality Control Review	Failure to Comply with Quality Control Norms	Quality control issues at IL&FS's audit underscored significant violations of SA 220. The audit firm's quality control policies, drafted by a global entity (EY), lacked alignment with Indian laws and specific guidelines on independence norms and client relationships. The Engagement Quality Control Review (EQCR) was inadequately performed, with superficial evaluation by the EQCR reviewer failing to meet SA 220's rigorous standards. These lapses compromised the audit firm's ability to ensure compliance with professional standards and regulatory requirements, indicating serious deficiencies in quality control measures.
	SA 230, SA 200	Audit Documentation	Importance of Professional Skepticism and Documentation	SA 230 underscores the fundamental principles of audit practice, emphasizing the crucial role of comprehensive audit documentation. In the case of IL&FS, these principles were severely compromised by the audit firm. SA 200 talks about professional skepticism, a cornerstone of auditing standards, which mandates auditors to critically assess management's assertions and to maintain an attitude of questioning and vigilance throughout the audit process. However, the audit firm's deficient application of professional skepticism led to inadequate scrutiny of significant financial statement items such as investments, loans, and revenue from related parties. Moreover, the audit documentation prepared by the firm was found to be inadequate, lacking clarity and completeness in recording professional judgments, decisions, and audit procedures performed. This deficiency not only hindered transparency in audit execution but also compromised the ability to provide sufficient evidence of the audit's thoroughness and accuracy. Therefore, the audit firm's failure to uphold these core principles of SA 200 and 230 demonstrate significant lapses in meeting the rigorous standards required for conducting audits effectively and responsibly.

	SA 260	Communication with Those Charged With Governance	Inadequate Reporting to Those Charged With Governance	The NFRA's assessment highlights critical deficiencies in the audit firm's compliance with SA 260, specifically concerning communication with Those Charged With Governance (TCWG) at IL&FS. SA 260 mandates auditors to communicate effectively with TCWG to provide them with timely and relevant information regarding significant audit matters. However, the audit firm's performance in this regard was severely lacking. There was a clear failure to establish and maintain effective communication channels with TCWG throughout the audit process. This omission deprived TCWG of crucial insights into audit findings, including significant issues such as the valuation of investments, impairment of assets, and compliance with regulatory requirements. By neglecting to engage TCWG adequately, the audit firm not only violated SA 260 but also undermined the governance structure's ability
